EXPENSIVE COMPETITION.

This is not a doctrine that finds favor with our people; not a bit of it.

Mrs. Jones has twice hundred a year, must dress like Mrs. Brown, who has hundred thousand.

Mrs. Brown goes to the sea-side and stays at an expensive hotel, therefore Mrs. Jones makes her husband's life a burden to him until he takes rooms for her in the very same floor of the very same house.

Outside of New England and the South, it is a refreshing rarity to meet any man who gives as much time and money to spend on amusements, this bicycle fever is raging with violence.

The Ministers have wheels, and the smallest girl knows how to ride, though she may not understand the English language.

In fact, even the members of the Chinese Legion, who are regarded as the most exclusive and non-progressive of the foreign representatives, have been to the school, and now they roam about in their gaudy silken robes on wheels.

LIVING IN HOPES.

Hazel Green Herald: A surveying corps started Monday to locate the route between Elizabethtown in Breathitt, via Lee City in this county to the Caney coal fields in Morgan county. Just as soon as the present survey is run a line will be run from Caney, via Hazel Green and Campion, to Mill Creek, on the L. & E., and we understand that the shorter route will be the one chosen. There are so many flying rumors about the proposed new road, that we are all at sea as to its final location and hence we had but little to say. Let us hope, at least, that it will be built.

TRUSTING TO GOOD SENSE.

A week from today the Democracy of Kentucky will assemble in delicate contention at Louisville. There are ways of avoiding that embarrassing necessity, however. One of them is not to allow your vote to become anybody's business but your own—St. Paul Pioneer.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN BECKNER.

(Special to the Climax.)

Louisville, June 25, 1895. Hon. W. M. Beckner, of Winchester, has just been elected temporary chairman of the State convention by a majority of 29 votes over Hon. W. J. Stone. Hardin's influence did it.

W. R. SHACKELFORD.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON has received a $16,000 lawyer's fee.

DRAWINGS have been wonderfully numerous the past week.

SATURDAY will in all probability find the State convention still in session.

The State convention on the surface looks like Hardin and sound money.

It has been said that "Mr. Clay has an option on Louisville and may decide to take it."

FREE silver would double the wealth of the mine owner, but injure every body else.

The entire country seems to be in a mood for shooting, as every day several tragedies are recorded.

During the month of May the Government mints coined $4,163,937 in gold and $4,961,951 in silver.

COL. SALAMANCO and 60 Spanish soldiers were killed in an engagement with the Rebels in Cuba.

"SILVER monometallism is only a way station on the road to irredeemable paper," says the Courier Journal.

COLORADO land owners will lose half a million dollars by frauds of Henry J. Aldrich, President of the Colorado Securities Co.

The Court of Appeals has annulled the will of the Baroness Falbenberg, and the vast estate will go to the Morgans and Hants.

It is believed that uninstructed delegates, so inclined, have an opportunity to carry some broadway with them to Louisville.

The Gordon acquittal continues to bear fruit bountifully, as evidenced by killings at Cynthia, Fort Wayne and other places the past week.

Why do Bryan, Stewart, Bland and other western fellows want to come to Kentucky and make free silver speeches? They own silver mines.

It looks like Hardin, but no one can tell what a day may bring forth, at any time, and especially in a State Democratic convention in Louisville.

The sixty-mile ship canal that joins the Baltic sea and German ocean and costs five million dollars, is now ready for use, after eight years of work.

GOVERNOR KNOTT MAY NOT ATTEND THE STATE CONVENTION.

Being asked if he would go to the State Democratic Convention, Gov. Knott, a free-silver advocate, said in his characteristic way:

"I am very anxious to be in Louisville and do my part toward holding the party straight on the currency question, but my health is of primary importance to me, and unless I feel much better next week than I do today I am afraid I will have to stay at home. If I don't take care of myself I have good reason to fear that I may be soon transported to that country where it is claimed there is no silver at all, but even those streets are said to be paved with gold. However, I hope for the best, and if I can possibly do so I will go to the convention next week, take my place with the Marion county delegation and do what I can to drive the money changers out of the Democratic temple."

Gov. Knott thinks the State Convention will not adopt the Chicago platform of 1892, as he says it means nothing, but will instead adopt the Kentucky platform of 1891.

NEW YORK OVERFLOWING WITH MONEY.

The money market in New York is in a badly congested condition, and as currency continues to flow into our banks in larger amounts than usual at this season of the year, there is little hope of an early improvement in the situation from the standpoint of the banks. Out-of-town banks are still offering funds at low rates for long terms at as low rates as our own institutions will quote, and the preparation for payment of interest by railroad and other corporations has not had any effect as yet upon quotations. Call money on stock and bond collateral loaned at this weekly at 1 per cent. at the Stock Exchange, with an occasional trade in the street at 11 per cent. in cases where the lender agreed to allow the loan to remain undisturbed over July 1st. There is therefore little expectation of a squeeze in rates in connection with the semi-annual settlements. Several banks and trust companies did not attempt to maintain a minimum rate of 11 per cent., and there were rumors of a coming general reduction of interest on trust company deposits. These institutions are now in most cases paying 2 per cent on large accounts, and some of them have recently been forced into the bond market.

It is much more probable that the next election will be held before the election of Francis.

EX-GOV. FRANCIS, when asked what he thought about a silver convention being called by the Democratic Committee, said: "I certainly hope that the committee will call a convention. There is no necessity for it, and, in my judgment, it would be a grievous political mistake. It would create a schism in the party which would not be healed before the election of 1896."

BE QUIET.

The Owensboro Messenger, free-silver organ, urges a free-silver plank in the State Democratic platform. Does Mr. Woodson want to split the Democratic party wide open?

LET IT ALONE.

The free-silver fellows want to make a great change and thereby disturb the business of the entire country. The anti-free-silverites don't want any change—they have had two match changing and disturbance already.

BOUGHT IN BOYLE.

Farris & Whitley sold to Anderson & Spelman about 6,000 bushels of growing wheat a 75 cents. D. C. Terhune has recently bought 20 miles, strictly first-class sugar cane lots, 19 of them, at an average of $131.25. Jim Allen sold 100 bushels to Briscoe & McRoberts a small load of yearlings, 600 pounds average at about 37 cents. Young, of Adair, sold some calves at 27 cents—Advocate & Stone vs. Beckner.

GOLD AND SILVER.

The director of U. S. Mint estimates the world's production of gold in calendar year 1894 as about $7,800,000 fine ounces, valued at $181,510,100, an increase of $22,678,000 over 1893. The silver production at 165,918,338 fine ounces, value $165,348,135, or an increased production of $72,000. Ounces.

In the production of gold Africa, Australia, United States Mexico led the increase in order named. The United produced $64,000 silver, coined value, commercial value $31,400,000. Mexico $60,817,000, coining value. North America exceeded the balance of the world. Australia's product is $41,769,000. Africa $40,306,000, and these with $39,500,000 by United States were two-thirds of the world's total.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM, 1892.

We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country and to the coining of both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal, or charge for mintage, but the dollar unit of coining of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value or be adjusted through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals, and the equal power of the two metals, and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets, and in the payment of debts. And we demand that all paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist on this policy as especially necessary for the protection of the farmers and laboring classes, THE FIRST AND MOST DEFENSIVE VICTIMS OF INSTABBLE MONEY AND FLUCTUATING CURRENCY.

POPULIST PLATFORM, 1892.

Free-silver Democrats say it hard times were caused by bad financing. A year ago they said it was the tariff. Two years ago they said it was the tariff. During the last national campaign they said it was the tariff. Cleveland was elected on a tariff issue as a cure for the hard times—the same hard times that now exist.

Let the finances alone and let the country settle down to its old time prosperity, advanced steps toward which have already been taken since the Wilson bill went into operation.

SLIGHTLY INCONSISTENT.

Now the free silver speakers have spent most of their time in elaborating the alleged inconsistencies of Mr. Carnegie, it will not be out of place to notice a few conflicts in Senator Stewart's career. Senator Stewart takes his notes payable in gold. He voted in Congress to keep the demonetization of silver. He was a Democrat then but now he is a Populist with strong Republican inclinations. He owns silver mines now and wants his billion to double in value. Is there anything remarkable that Blackwell suggested to Mr. Stewart that he ought to go back to the other side of the Rockies?

GAZE ON THIS PICTURE.

Suppose that Gen. Hardin should be nominated for Governor of Kentucky on a sound money platform. Then suppose he should begin a canvass of the State, along with Mr. Bradley, Should Gen. Hardin say in the course of his speech that he favored sound money, it is more than probable that Mr. Bradley would ejaculate something about Local Angua. On the other hand should Wat say he was first, last and always for free silver, Bill would be likely to advise him to take in his sign. Then again if Wat attempted to ignore the money problem Bill would proceed in the most orderly but effective manner to rip him up and down the back, a capite ad calcem, and kick the posterior portion of his pants from ear to ear.

DO YOU BELIEVE IN FREE SILVER?

The free-silver advocates say it hard times were caused by bad financing. A year ago they said it was the tariff. Two years ago they said it was the tariff. During the last national campaign they said it was the tariff. Cleveland was elected on a tariff issue as a cure for the hard times—the same hard times that now exist.

IT'S DEMOCRATIC.

The established gold standard of money is the legitimate outcome of Democratic policy. In 1843 the ratio was changed to 16 to 1 by a Democratic Congress for the express purpose of securing a gold currency.

—Thus one of the Democratic fathers of the sound monetary system, and under his leadership the Bimetal mint drops began to pour rapidly from the United States mints. In 1853, in pursuance of the same Democratic policy, the parity of subsidiary silver coinage was established by order that this currency might be kept in circulation.

There was practically no difference between the standard of the British Ministry, in so far as it bears upon the prospect of another monetary conference. He was seen yesterday by a reporter for the Commercial, and stated that, from his experience with the English members of the Brussels conference, he is satisfied that the advent of the Salisbury Ministry will do much for the cause of international agreement upon bimetallism.

THE NEW ENGLISH MINISTRY FA-VOIRS BIMETALLISM, THINKS MR. MCNEARY.

The retirement of Lord Roseberry and the reorganization of the English Ministry by Lord Salisbury starts anew the talk of an international monetary conference to agree upon a ratio for bimetallism.

HON. JAMES B. MCNEARY, Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, is in Louisville to attend the Democratic State Convention. He was also a member of the International Monetary Conference which met at Brussels in 1892, and takes particular interest in the change of the British Ministry, in so far as it bears upon the prospect of another monetary conference.

He was born in 1816, and though England has maintained the gold standard since 1816, bimetallists has many friends among the manufacturers, agriculturists and business men generally, and the people would very likely sustain the Ministry in any action looking toward another international conference.

Mr. McNeary thought such an agreement might be secured without the participation of England, but when an international monetary conference assembles in Europe it would be very encouraging to have the support of the leading statesmen in the English Ministry.

The House of Commons has already adopted a resolution that is regarded as favorable for an international conference.

Germany, France and the United States had taken action for such a conference, and if England will now cooperate the metallic problem can be solved.

Mr. McNeary regards Salisbury as a great statesman, and better equipped in every way than Roseberry for a more liberal and more enlightened policy.

We are told more snakes have been seen in and around Paris this summer than for many years past.—Paris Kentuckian Citizen.
